NEW NEUTRALS

Well-curated finds that combine form and function in elegant, unexpected ways. STYLED BY ANNE PAPPAS

1. Antique Gilt Louis XVI Settee. Evoking a bygone era, Eloquence’s compact and contemporary settee offers an air of antique Parisian opulence, decadence, and sophistication. eloquence.com

2. Fern Pattern in Cadet on Logan Natural Linen. Alternating between geometric patterns and natural forms, this fern pattern embodies understated, natural elegance. galbraithandpaul.com

3. The Jerome Stool, Driftwood. Constructed of Cape

lilac mahogany, handwoven cane, and bronze sabots, this charming, sophisticated stool skillfully combines contemporary aesthetics with old-world craftsmanship. bungalow5.com

4. Rose Drink Table. Designed by Katy Skelton, this drink table blends clean, modern lines and contemporary styling via brass, walnut, and marble. charlestonforge.com

5. Petite Antique French Mirror. This artfully distressed mirror’s simple, muted gilt finish and antique mercury glass gracefully reflect the past and the present. eloquence.com

6. Antilles Porcelain Wares. Highlighted by delicate, undulating forms, these porcelain vessels capture the essence of sea urchins and seashells for the beachcomber in all of us. palecek.co
